COURTHOUSE CLOSURES IN SANGER AND SELMA COURT SERVICE WINDOWS TO OPEN IN SANGER AND SELMA

Due to State budget cuts, the Fresno County Superior Court is relocating court calendars in Sanger and Selma and closing the courthouses in those cities as of Friday June 20, 2003.

- Sanger – All cases including Felony, Misdemeanor, Traffic Infractions, Juvenile Traffic and Civil and Small Claims will be heard in the Reedley Superior Court located at 815 “G” Street, Reedley 93654
- Selma - Felony and Misdemeanor cases will be heard in the Kingsburg Superior Court located at 1600 California Street, Kingsburg 934631
- Selma – Traffic Infractions, Juvenile Traffic and Civil and Small Claims cases will be heard in the Fowler Superior Court located at 127 E. Merced Street, Fowler 93622

Court Service Windows Opening in Sanger and Selma beginning July 7, 2003

- The Sanger Court Service Window will be located at the Sanger Police Department, 1700 7th Street in Sanger from 9 AM to 4 PM on Tuesday and Thursday
- The Selma Court Service Window will be located at the Fresno County Human Services System’s Selma Regional Center, 3800 McCall in Selma from 9 AM to 4 PM on Monday, Wednesday and Friday

These Court Service Windows will allow local residents to pay fines, file civil and small claims cases and perform other routine court transactions that do not require an appearance before a judge. All cases from Sanger requiring a court appearance will only be heard in Reedley. Criminal cases from Selma requiring a court appearance will only be heard in Kingsburg; Traffic Infractions, and Civil and Small Claims cases requiring a court appearance will only be heard in Fowler.
